RE: FREE Trial Advertising with the JASEzone

I am writing to introduce myself and to open your sights to an advertising avenue for your organization that you may not be aware of - an exciting online social community, JASEzone.

JASEzone can be found on the Internet at <http://www.jasezone.com/>. Please feel free to visit the JASEzone, create your very own personal account so you can get a first hand feel for our community, and understand why our community members are so excited.

To welcome you to the JASEzone, we have setup your FREE 30-day trial to advertise your company in the JASEzone. Your company name, tagline and logo is displayed randomly on each page of the JASEzone for all users to see. Visit us to see your name already in lights.

FREE Online Advertising

- 30-day FREE trial - $1,500 per year value
- Your company is randomly displayed on every page
- Monthly billing after FREE trial
- Drive targeted traffic to your website
- Increase search engine awareness

JASEzone garners better than 250,000 page views per month for its current advertisers. That means that your organization's name and message could be seen more than 250,000 times each and every month. How's that for immediate ROI (return on investment)?!!!

Please visit <http://www.jasezone.com/advertising/> for more details on partnering with the JASEzone.

Thank you for taking the time to read this message from your friends at JASE Group. We look forward to speaking with you about exciting advertising opportunities.

Regards,

Keith Parnell
